

DOIN' IT IN THE PARK

a film by BOBBITO GARCIA & KEVIN COULIAU

These yin and yang baskets in Far Rockaway, Queens, were photographed by Larry Racioppo, whose outstanding camera work has graced the New York Times.

Racioppo knows a thing or two about New York City courts. For 22 years, he was the official photographer for the Department of Housing Preservation and Development where he documented every aspect of NYC, including all of the hallowed grounds he encountered along the way.

The Bronx, New York.

DOIN' IT IN THE PARK salutes Larry and his phenomenal footage that spans from the '70s until the present day, marking a place in history for all makeshift and city funded courts alike!
